❖ DEBARMENT, SUSPENSION, PROPOSED DEBARMENT AND OTHER RESPONSIBLE MATTERS

(Applies to proposals over $35,000, in compliance with FAR 52.209-6 [9.409])

To the best of its knowledge and belief, the Offeror, or any of its principals, is not presently debarred, suspended, proposed for debarment or otherwise declared ineligible for the award of contracts by any Federal agency by the inclusion of the Offeror or its principals in the current "LIST OF PARTIES EXCLUDED FROM FEDERAL PROCUREMENT OR NONPROCUREMENT PROGRAMS" published by the U.S. General Services Administration Office of Acquisition Policy. "Principals" for the purpose of this certificate, means officers, directors, owners, partners, and persons having primary management or supervisory responsibilities within a business entity. The Offeror shall provide immediate written notice to HRL if, at any time prior to the Purchase Order award, it learns that its certification was erroneous when submitted or has become erroneous by reason of changed circumstances.

Failure to provide this certificate will not necessarily result in the withholding of a Purchase Order; however, the certificate will be considered in connection with a determination of the Offeror's responsiveness. Failure of the Offeror to furnish such additional information as requested in the absence of this certification may render the Offeror non-responsive.

Execution of this certificate is a material representation of fact upon which reliance may be placed in making a Purchase Order award. If it is subsequently determined that this certificate was erroneous, HRL may, in addition to other available remedies, terminate a resulting Purchase Order.
