

Tariff Adjustment Communication

HRL Laboratories, LLC (HRL) is committed to continued adherence with current U.S. Administration Executive Orders and modifications to existing Acts and Regulations regarding certain raw materials, components and foreign imports.

Accordingly, HRL Laboratories agrees to accept reasonable, actual tariff costs upon submission and review of documentation substantiating the calculated costs allocated to HRL by your Company.

We sincerely hope that your Company continues to work diligently as a valued supply partner to control supply chain costs for HRL to remain as competitive as possible. Thank you for your partnership in HRL's continued success.

Sincerely,
